CLOSE GAME AT BOURNE

In a game which featured many threats the score was close as Old Rochester topped Bourne by a score of 8 to 6 on Saturday at Bourne. Both teams showed an ability to move in mid-field only to bog down as they neared the goal line. The Rochester score was set up when Bourne's quick kick was returned to Bourne's 30. A pass from Knight to his end, F. Gunschel was completed on the 25 and the run took him to the 10 yard line. Fullback C. Briggs then bulled to within an inch or two.

Gardner Knight dove over the center to score. The conversion came on a jump pass from Knight to Donald Dorr. This score came late in the second quarter. It was late in the third quarter when Knight was hit hard as he faded to pass, the ball bounced up and on the way down was gathered in by Dunlap of Bourne. In the beginning of the fourth, a hand off from Sweeney to Dunaway gained four yards to the 35. A pass was incomplete. Sweeney hit Poage on the OR 25. The ball was then fumbled and recovered gaining one. Palomba took it to the 20, Poage to the five and then O'Neil to the one. O'Neil then scored for Bourne. In the try for the extra points the OR line surged through and pounced on O'Neil before he could get the pass away. This was the deciding play as the game ended 8 to 6. Late in the fourth quarter Old Rochester put on a real display of power as they drove down field through tackle time after time. This was too late to show however as the gun ended the game stopping the drive. QB Knight was outstanding for Rochester, both on offense and defense. The middle of the Rochester line was solid with Murphy and Andrews playing very well as tackles. Harding and Paloma did a fine job of ball carrying for Bourne.

What we now know as Mattapoisett had--along with the present Marion and Rochester--been incorporated a year earlier (1686) as the original Town of Rochester. First settlers had arrived in 1680. Coastwise trade rapidly developing in all the timber products of 70 square miles of virgin wilderness; crude wharves at Brant Island Cove and Marion Old Landing. The people of Mattapoisett were British subjects of King William.

Farms along the river, on the two Necks, in Tinkham-town, Wolf Island, and Randalltown (the Rochester Road north from King Philip Spring Road), with lesser centers at Pine Island and Aucoot. Thriving coastwise trade to nearby ports; other landings below Herring Weir, on east side of harbor, and at Aucoot. Mattapoisett people subjects of Queen Anne.

Dear friends,

We wonder sometimes if we fully appreciate our clergymen.

We have always admired the spirit of willingness shown by the clergy in responding to funeral calls, always without a thought of compensation. Funeral requests often involve personal sacrifice.

This community is particu-

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, OCTOBER 9

Lloyd's Market brought their "banana ball" to the Bowl-Mor Alleys and picked up enough big bunches of pins to wallop Hartley Saw Mill 3 and 0. Don Gifford got a 403 triple, as Lloyd's hit 631 and 1747, all for new highs. Big John Cebula hit 343 for the Saw Mill. Tony Lopes' 340 set up the Knotty Pine Cafe to a 2 to 1 win over the Woodchoppers. Eddie Macomber collected 336 pins for his team. Eddie Arruda had a 384 to lead Dennis Mahoney & Sons in a 2 to 1 match with Hartley's Garage (Joe Pare 331). Stub Hartley's 339 helped Herbs TV Shop to salvage one point from Hiller's Garage. Jay Hiller's 380 not quite enough for the clean sweep.

MARION CHAPTER AFS MEET

The Marion Chapter American Field Service, meeting Friday night, October 5, at the home of the chairman, John R. A meeting date set for October 29 at 8 P.M. is expected to bring out representatives of each of the member towns for the purpose of effecting organization and appointing a nominating committee; time and place for regular meetings and such other details as may be indicated.

As soon as officers are elected a new charter must be applied for. The central committee of the American Field Service in New York has already granted approval for the

BISHOP REGAN CLUB JEEP FUND

Friends and contributors to the "Jeep" fund for His Excellency Bishop Joseph Regan, M.M., D.D. should be proud of their efforts to further the work of the foreign missions. Contributions to date have built the fund up to $1,642. toward the purchase of the "Jeep". Bishop Regan's mission posts in the Philippines will benefit greatly when the Jeep is in use over the hazardous roadbeds of the islands and in those areas only approachable by arduous journey. Members of the Bishop Regan Club of Fairhaven, who sponsored this drive, will be turning over the final receipts to His Excellency in
